To Dr. N. K. Choudhari
Priyadarshini college,
Nagpur.

Respected Sir / Madam,

We are celebrating the year 2022 as the 75th anniversary of Indian Independence. The freedom gained through the sacrifices of many great women and men is not limited to geographical border security, but is a golden opportunity for our generation to nurture our culture, art and strength.

The legendary freedom fighters, gained the independence through various innovative and public participative campaigns. Burning foreign manufactured cloth as a mark of protest, being one of them. We, the current generation can make the Independence, immortal by manufacturing and promoting indigenous fabric and garments. This will be more relevant for progress of modern India To strengthen the model of self-sustenance through public participation and to promote heritage art of weavers. Maha Handloom has undertaken the task of weaving "Fabric of Unity" with the aim of bringing the work of weavers and handloom artists like fabric painters, block printers etc. to the world stage and paying tribute to the creativity of weavers.

I, Sheetal Teli-Ugale, IAS, Commissioner of Textile and Managing Director, Maharashtra State Handloom Corporation Ltd., urge all citizens to give their full support to this unique initiative and to make their invaluable contribution by weaving a few threads on the handloom. From World Heritage Day to Independence Day (April 18 to August 15, 2022), Maha Handloom intends to produce a record length of handloom fabric by non-weaver citizens themselves. We are sure that the warp of weavers on the handloom and the weft by the citizens will make the "Fabric of Unity" a symbol of the Indian handloom culture.

Your participation will go a long way in enhancing the self-respect and confidence of all weavers and artists associated with the textile culture and making the general public aware of the hardships behind this art. Every individual, organization, institution, NGO, corporate house, and informal group is invited to Maha Handloom's showroom on Umred Road, with all your friends and family, to weave some threads on handloom. Our activity managers will also be present in the show room on all working days from 3 pm to 7 pm from 18th April. A prior call, will help us plan your visit in better way.
